

1 May 2007

MEDIA ALERT

The Fleming's & Trailfinders Australian team will be farewelled in Aussie tradition with a barbecue on the banks of the Yarra on 4 May hours before flying out for the Chelsea Flower Show in the UK.

Twenty-one members of the Australian team dressed in team colours hot pink and purple boots (supporting the Purple Boot Brigade fight against breast cancer), will crank up the Barbie before catching a flight at Melbourne's Tullamarine Airport.

This is Wes Fleming's fourth Australian Garden that he has taken to Chelsea. In the past two years he has won gold and this year he is aiming for Best In Show.

Melbourne landscape designer Mark Browning has designed this year's Australian Garden. He describes it "sophisticated, stylish and contemporary; a place where you can completely lose yourself."

Chelsea Flower Show opens and awards are announced on Tuesday May 22.

PICTURE/FILM OPPORTUNITY

What:	The Australian team including Wes Fleming, Mark Browning and 19 crew members will fire up the barbecue before flying out for the UK. Kangaroos' Glen Archer will also be farewelling the team as an Ambassador for Purple Boot Brigade
When:	Friday 4 May at 2.00 pm (leaving for a flight at 4.30 pm)
Where:	Banks of the Yarra, near Swan St Bridge, Melways 2G A9
Why:	To farewell the team who will construct the Fleming's Trailfinders Australian Garden at Chelsea Flower Show in the UK.

For media inquiries:

Sandra Cavallo: 0408 340 063 or Jan Jacklin 0417 533 281
Wes Fleming: 0417 578 901 Mark Browning: 0417 301 824