

Fleming's announces new designer

FLEMING'S Nurseries and Trailfinders has wasted no time in chasing more gold medal success in London by announcing the appointment of Scott Wynd to spearhead the design of its 2009 entry in the Chelsea Flower Show.

Its director, Wes Fleming, says Mr Wynd has become an integral part of every garden entry since 2005. He says that as a designer in his own right, Mr Wynd has the knowledge and ability to take out a Chelsea 'best in show'.

"We are extremely excited to finally have Scott Wynd as the official designer in 2009," he says.
